942. SHRI DWIJENDRA NATH SHARMAH: will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of Delhi Police personnel who died while on duty during the last three years till date, year-wise;

(b) the number of applications received from the dependents of deceased employees for appointment on compassionate grounds during this period;

(c) the number of persons appointed so far on compassionate grounds during this period indicating the names of persons with full address;

(d) the number of applications rejected indicating the specific reasons therefor; and

(e) by when all the dependents of deceased employees would be appointed in Delhi Police on compassionate grounds by increasing the posts under this quota?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) to (c) 59 police personnel died while on duty during the years 2003, 2004, 2005 and upto 24th July, 2006. 30 applications have been received from the dependents of deceased employees for appointment on compassionate grounds during the said period. Out of these, 19 candidates have been approved for appointment on compassionate grounds as per details given in Annexure.

(d) Out of the thirty applications, seven applications have been rejected by the Screening Committee in the light of Government of India's instructions on the subject and Supreme Court's judgement in the case of Umesh Kumar Nagpal Vs State of Haryana and other relevant factors such as size of family, age of the deceased at the time of death, age of children, presence of earning members, assets and liabilities of the family.

(e) As per the Government of India's instructions, compassionate appointment can be given upto a maximum of 5% of the vacancies falling under the direct recruitment quota in group 'C' and 'D' posts. It is not feasible to prescribe any time frame in this regard as appointments are given on the basis of suitability of the applicants and availability of vacant posts.
